Introduction

MARTINEZ & ASSOCIATES CPAs is a full service accounting and business advisory firm with a focus in the automotive dealership industry. Through our in-depth knowledge of the automotive dealership industry, we can help drive organizations like yours through the various financial and accounting obstacles inherent with automotive dealerships. One of our primary objectives is to help our clients maximize profits and minimize tax liabilities. We strongly believe that this presentation will demonstrate how we can help dealerships like yours succeed in a way that no other firm can.

We have found that most firms lack in identifying the main objectives of their clients regarding the need for outside CPA services. The industry knowledge we have acquired over the years serving dealerships like yours has enabled us to develop a thorough understanding of the distinctive needs of automotive dealerships that makes our firm the most qualified to meet your needs.

Martinez & Associates CPAs strives to provide services to our clients to meet their goals and expectations. One way we provide such services is to partner with various organizations that may benefit our clients. We leverage these relationships combined with our industry knowledge to provide services above and beyond the standard accounting and tax services traditionally provided by other accounting firms. Ultimately, the key to our success is our people and their willing commitment to accomplish these goals. You will find this presentation has a simple purpose—to share the values and qualifications of our firm and to reinforce the value of our firm to your organization.

A peer review is required to be performed once every three years. The Firm's most recent peer review conducted in 2019 resulted in an unqualified report with no letter of comments, which is the highest grade a firm can receive. This underscores the Firm's continuing commitment to overall quality.

Our Approach

Experience has taught us that choosing an accounting firm is a significant decision, not arrived at lightly, nor to be undertaken without knowing what can be expected from your accountants seeing as the decision can have a major impact on the organization's future success.

Several key aspects of our Firm set us apart:

- ❖ High degree of partner, manager and supervisor interaction and involvement with each client ensuring clients always receive the highest level of service.
- ❖ Industry knowledge and experience acquired over the course of thirty-five years serving clients in the automotive dealership industry.
- ❖ Trustworthy accountants and business advisors passionate about securing our clients' financial future.

Our team is comprised of exceptional CPAs, accountants and business minded individuals. We pride ourselves in the fact that we are not just great accountants, but also great business people.

Your organization deserves a properly leveraged team of CPAs and business advisors in order to receive a high level service and maintain fees at an appropriate level. The individuals assigned to each of our client projects is as follows:

Client Partner - will have complete responsibility for all work performed. Will participate in planning, attend client meetings and review all significant accounting issues with the client service team to enable our Firm to provide the highest level of service.

Client Manager - will maintain continuing contact with the client team through a review of working files, supervision of staff accountants and meetings with client personnel. In addition, will be responsible for working with the client partner and in the overall administration of the client project to ensure the client's expectations are always met.

Planning

The planning phase of a client project establishes a proper foundation for the direction of the project and for coordination with client management ensuring the client's expectations are met. Our planning is accomplished through:

- ❖ Meeting with client management and staff to communicate expectations and develop a solid rapport.
- ❖ Obtaining an understanding of the dealerships business including the types of financing arrangements they enter into with their customers in order to determine how the deals, overall operations and accounting system integrate. Our main objective during this knowledge gathering process is to enable us to provide valuable recommendations to our clients which may represent opportunities for strengthening their internal controls and operating efficiency.

Reporting

At the completion of our accounting services, we will schedule a meeting with client management and furnish formal reports highlighting our clients financial results. We also use this to provide any feedback and recommendations to client management which may help further improve their operations. Lastly, we use this time to allow our client's to communicate with us and provide us with feedback to ensure they are receiving the highest level of service and also to ensure their overall satisfaction is being met.

Furthermore, Martinez & Associates CPAs is a full service accounting firm offering a complete spectrum of accounting related and professional services. At Martinez & Associates CPAs we like to view ourselves as not only our client's accountants but also their business advisors. As trusted business advisors our client's come to us first whenever a need for professional services arises. We came to realize that traditionally organizations' multiple business advisors do not communicate with each other resulting in inefficiencies and overlapping services and consequently not always making sound business decisions. As a response our firm over the years has established a group of trusted professional business and service advisors which share our unparalleled commitment to excellence and client service. This open communication between all advisors allows us to adequately perform tax planning and implement tax strategies for our clients ensuring they minimize their tax liability and maximize profits. All in all, our clients are able to obtain all of their professional service needs under one roof providing greater levels of efficiencies for our clients.

Industry Experience

We realize that the automotive dealership industry is extremely specialized and requires a unique understanding of the applicable accounting principles, tax laws and regulatory issues. These can only be understood and applied by well-earned experience.

Martinez & Associates CPAs has acquired in-depth experience in the automotive dealership industry through serving many clients in the industry over the past thirty-five years. Over the years our firm has established a niche expertise within the industry that has helped set us apart from other firms. Our firm has represented both franchise and independent dealerships in various capacities and has worked closely with buy-here pay-here dealerships helping them steer through the complex transactions such as selling or pledging its "paper", transactions between related finance companies and "repos" to list a few. Our firm assists our clients with inventory and floor plan management to ensure the dealership's most significant asset is properly reconciled. In addition, our firm has represented various dealerships who have undergone sales tax audits conducted by the department of revenue helping our clients save thousands of dollars from the original assessment as well as train and setup internal controls to help prevent future instances of non-compliance. Our staff are QuickBooks Pro Advisor certified and also well versed with several dealership accounting packages and offer accounting software implementation and training services to our clients. Several of our clients represent the top dealerships in terms of units sold in the State of Florida. Personal references and testimonials can be furnished upon request.
